

WE'RE HIRING

ARE YOU AN EXPERIENCED AND MOTIVATED COACH WHO WANTS TO MAKE A DIFFERENCE?

City of Edinburgh Basketball club is one of the most successful sports clubs in the UK and has exciting plans to expand the size and reach of the club through our community programmes.

WE ARE RECRUITING DYNAMIC AND ENTHUSIASTIC COMMUNITY COACHES TO MAKE A DIFFERENCE TO YOUNG PEOPLE'S LIVES THROUGH BASKETBALL.

With a salary of £24,000 pro-rata, you will develop your coaching skills by working with Craig Nicol, our Director of Basketball, and our successful coaching team, and will help us deliver our ambitious strategic plan for our club.

Role Responsibility

As a Community Coach you will own, design, organise and deliver community programmes.

You will be responsible for building relationships with primary and secondary schools, and work with those schools and communities to inspire children and adults to commit to the sport of basketball, and to the City of Edinburgh Basketball Club.

The Ideal Candidate

The ideal candidate will have experience of delivering sports based community programmes.

You should have a strong vision for community coaching, be imaginative and innovative in your approach to engaging young people, and be driven by a strong belief that what you do makes a difference.

You will be a self-starter who is able to work independently whilst seeking to work closely with your colleagues. You will be skilled at leading and developing a team of Community Coaches, organising and deploying them to best effect. You will be comfortable working in challenging environments. Resilience will be vital.

You will be flexible and willing to work evenings and weekends if required. A full driving licence is essential for these posts.
